

A collection of various household items, including a green teapot, a white mug, a silver lantern with star cutouts, a red teapot, and a blue crockpot, arranged on a table. The items are displayed in a way that suggests they are for sale at a car boot sale. The background shows more items, including a large metal pot and a blue teapot.

Car Boot Sales

A Handy Guide

Introduction

Welcome to the Morses Club car boot sale guide.

This guide has been designed to showcase some of the most popular car boot sales in the UK and give you some key information about each location.

We've focused on 38 of the biggest car boot sales in the country, but there are plenty more around, so keep an eye out for any in your local area.

Car boot sales are great for finding bargains and hidden gems if you're a buyer, or for making a few extra quid if you're a seller. They make a great day out for families, couples and individuals – so why not see what's available in your area?

All prices and opening times correct at time of publication. Morses Club does not accept liability for the content of this publication or it's accuracy.
